I love Guacamelee. And I hate DLC that can easily be a part of initial release.

Well, at least it's better than the first one. Almost same price and you get either 3 costumes or 15 challenges and 7 costumes. Still, it was fun. Some of the challenges are really tough, some are pretty easy. But they are nowhere near as hard as Hell from the first game or key challenges from main game. I haven't touch the game since september, bought DLC yesterday and beat it in a couple of hours.

Buy it if you want to support the developers.. As a huge fan of Guacamelee, I bought this on the first day of it's release. I had a blast doing the Hell challenges in the first, and it's quite similar; except the challenges are even more hard than before.

Guacamelee 2 is harder than the first, and those challenges are harder than most of Guacamelee 2. It took me a little more than 2 hours getting gold medals everywhere and finishing the DLC (plus the achievements) and at this price, you can't go wrong if you want more of Guacamelee.

Maybe only one level felt cheap for me (saving the green skeleton, third round...) but all of those challenges are completely void of randomness, or unfairness. You really need to master all the mechanics of the whole game to win this... Except the egg mechanic.
